At the arranged time transfer to Mesastila Hotel. Before arrival we will visit the famous Buddhist Temple Borobudur, which holds over 500 Buddha statues and thousands of relief panels. Then transfer to Mesastila – Losari Coffee Plantation. The essence of the retreat is defined through the calming and powerful environment in which MesaStila (previously known as Losari Spa Retreat and Coffee Plantation) sits - encircled by eight magnificent volcanoes and set within fifty-five acres of gardens, plantation and tropical jungle.

Meals Included: Breakfast

DAY 5: WELLNESS DAY

Free day at your own leisure. We recommend you the hotel spa. With the perfect balance of ancient and contemporary healing traditions, MesaStila brings you the finest therapies from Asia and the Near East.

The Indonesian Archipelago has a long history of contact between Chinese and Arab traders, who introduced plants, herbs and spices; bringing insights from Indian Ayurvedic, Chinese and Greek medicine and Arab healing practices. The traditional Indonesian Jamu sellers are a result of these enormous influences and today these people are best described as "walking-talking pharmacies".

Cultural traditions were adopted as the traders traversed the region and one such ritual is the Hammam. With its origins in Turkey, MesaStila is proud to house South East Asia's only authentic Hammam, where steam bathing combines functionality with decadent cleansing rituals.
